COMMENTS

08 Out of the woods? Beyond Grexit and Grecovery

Antonis D. Papagiannidis examines whether signs of a Greek economic turnaround can be sustained at a time when talk of 'Grexit' has been replaced by 'Grecovery'. He also looks at who is to blame for Greece's fiscal adjustment programme going off track after the launch of Vassilis Manessiotis' book Is it the fault of the Multiplier?

By Antonis D. Papagiannidis

42 Learning from Barack Obama

Economist and author Nick Papandreou says that a recent visit to Washington and warm words of encouragement from US President Barack Obama and his vice-president Joe Biden provide a fine example of Greece's true potential

BANKING

18 Moment of truth

Three out of the four major Greek banks seemed set to raise 10 per cent of their share capital increase from private investors and remain under private management as a long-awaited bank recapitalisation plan got underway. But analysts cautioned new stress tests could point to additional capital needs in the six months after the recap
